一、阅读理解

My First Cooking Lesson

Last Sunday, I learned to make noodles. My mother cooked noodles before, but this was my first time. First, I washed the tomatoes and broke two eggs into a small bowl. Then Mum put some water into a pot and turned on the fire. Then, she showed me how to put the noodles into the hot water. I thought noodles were easy to make, but it was difficult for me. I was very careful. After ten minutes, the noodles were ready. I added some eggs and tomatoes. They tasted very delicious. My father ate a big bowl at lunch and said it was great. I felt very proud because I could help my mother.
